Chicago Urban Adventures is transforming the travel industry with experiences for those who want to get off the beaten path and really connect with a destination. They can be as short as a couple of hours, or as long as a whole day, but in every case our Urban Adventures tours visit local places, meet local people, and help our guests understand what makes a place tick. All of our activities promote local businesses, respect for locals, and contribute to thriving and sustainable neighborhoods. We are looking for people to join our team that share our passions for the city, food, drink, local business and sustainability.

In your response / cover letter, tell us the Top 5 things you enjoy doing with family and friends when they visit Chicago.
