

Urban Adventures Guide

Do you love history and culture? Do you think DC is an amazing city? Would you love to share your passion with others AND get paid for it? Looking for a job with flexibility that gives you the possibility of work/life balance? Then we want YOU to be an Urban Adventures tour guide!

This role is part-time. During the winter season (Nov-Feb) we are looking for 10 hours/week. In our peak season (Mar-Oct) we look for 20 hours/week.

What we offer:

- A job where you cruise around the city in a slick electric car, meet new people every day, and get paid for it
- Flexible scheduling, with tours running every day and evening
- A local and global family with opportunities for fun, travel, and learning
- An organization that cares about community, people, and the environment, with a vision to transform the travel industry
- A team with opportunities to contribute to the strategy, direction, and growth of our company
- Work outside, not at a desk
- Compensation of $20-$30/hr.

You offer:

- Passion for DC history, food, art, travel - whatever makes you special!
- A friendly and engaging personality, plus a self-sufficient and responsible attitude
- A desire to help people truly connect with our city and have a great time
- A belief that travel should be about discovery and connection with a place and its people
- Leadership, adaptability, and problem-solving skills

And if you're really awesome you also offer:

- Experience in the tourism, hospitality, education, or service industries (guiding experience is a big plus)
- City driving experience, particularly a familiarity with downtown Washington DC
- Fluency in another language, particularly Spanish, French, Italian, Mandarin, Cantonese, German, or American Sign Language

Application Materials:

1. Updated Resume
2. Cover Letter
3. Interest Video
 - a. A brief 1-3 minute video to showcase your storytelling skills. We want to hear one of your favorite stories about Washington, DC! It can be something you personally experienced here or a historical moment that speaks to you. This video doesn't need to be extremely long. Let your personality shine through! To get you started, here are some examples of the type of story you could tell:
 - An experience you had here that wouldn't happen anywhere else in the world
 - A story about a famous figure (Lincoln, MLK, etc.) that you think most people haven't heard before
 - An interesting tale of how one of your favorite memorials or buildings came to be
 - Anything else you can think of that relates to our city and any of the people involved in its history!

Feel free to make this your own. We are excited to learn more about this city and about you! Just make sure you've got your facts right!

Please send your application materials to info@washingtondcurbanadventures.com.

Urban Adventures is transforming the travel industry with experiences for those who want to get off the beaten path and really connect with a destination. They can be as short as a couple of hours, or as long as a whole day, but in every case our Urban Adventures tours visit local places, meet local people, and help our guests understand what makes a place tick. All of our activities promote local businesses, respect for locals, and contribute to thriving and sustainable neighborhoods. We are looking for people to join our team that share our passions for the city, food, drink, local business and sustainability. #localsknow
